

5
OCT CELEBRATING THE 10TH ANNIVERSARY OF HAMILTON ARTS & LETTERS Art Gallery of Hamilton
123 King St W

6:30 – 8:30 PM Featuring: HAL editors Paul Lisson and Fiona Kinsella, Music ensemble ArtPop with Dusty Micale, Klyde Broox, Henry Giroux, Shane Neilson, and many more! Followed by reception.

18
OCT LONG TABLE: THE 10TH ANNIVERSARY OF
HAMILTON ARTS & LETTERS Room 212
McMaster CCE
1 James St N

3 – 5 PM This Long Table, organized by HAL editors Paul Lisson, Fiona Kinsella, and Shane Neilson, involves artists and poets with disability or who engage in a significant way with the topic of disability as a result of caring, loving, and living with persons with disability. The Long Table kicks off with Music Professor Dusty Micale and the ArtPop music ensemble.

Following the Long Table, Paul and Fiona invite all attendees to a viewing of Der Himmel über Hammer ist blau (The sky above is blue hammer), an exhibition by Paul and Fiona. Location: b contemporary gallery, 226 James St North (a short distance from CCE).

20
NOV LONG TABLE: AGILE FILMS COLLECTIVE AND
HAMILTON TENANTS SOLIDARITY NETWORK Room 212
McMaster CCE
1 James St N

7 – 9 PM Agile Films Collective, facilitated by Peter Cockett, works with youth to develop skills in film-making and will present one of their films. Hamilton Tenants Solidarity Network is a grassroots initiative that seeks to connect tenants from across Hamilton and amplify their concerns—including in their new newsletter!

12
FEB LONG TABLE: PLACING ATTENTION Room 110
McMaster CCE
1 James St N

3 – 5 PM Placing Attention is the first in a themed series of Long Tables on the ways art can shape how people perceive their surroundings. This Long Table features artist Calla Churchward, poet Darrell Epp, and a broadsheet by Matt McInnes and Simon Orpana.

12
MAR LONG TABLE: ART NOT SHAME AND STORIES
FROM HAMILTON Room 213
McMaster CCE
1 James St N

3 – 5 PM The mission of Art Not Shame (directed by Michelle Peek) is to support people in expressing and addressing mental health challenges through art-making and storytelling. Stories from Hamilton (organized by Lisa Pijuan-Nomura) works to develop the capacity of new storytellers in Hamilton.